Faqhroll, Emergency Physician with a strong sense of duty and an intrinsic drive to uphold the quality of emergency and health care services. Key strengths include being highly adaptable and ability to engage with superiors, colleagues and the wider community. I am committed to further developing my skills and capabilities through continuous learning with proper guidance.

Currently working in Emergency Department, Hospital Pasir Mas, Kelantan as a Head of Emergency Department after served the community of east coast Sabah as emergency physician for almost 5 years.

Succesfully summited few local mountains in Malaysia and completed my 6th Mount Kinabalu summit recently. An adrenaline junkie and a trail runner as my latest outdoor routine.
